To Whom It May Concern,

As by way of this letter, Sumatec Oil & Gas LLP (Sumatec Oil & Gas) would like to inform anyone concerned that during the period of cooperation with the Limited Liability Partnership Continental Industrial Supply and Services (CISS) Limited, this company has proved itself as a professional and reliable partner.

During the long-term cooperation, Continental Industrial Supply and Services (CISS) Limited has repeatedly conducted itself with an elevated level of professionalism and competency. During our collaboration, all the work was carried out without injury and on time. Industry best practices were followed and implemented with a high level of quality. Additionally, requests for unplanned services beyond the initial scope of work were also accepted managed and implemented by CISS, some by subcontracting and managing third party providers.

We are highly satisfied with the activities of Continental Industrial Supply and Services (CISS) Limited and have no reservations in recommending this company as a professional and committed partner, capable of finding innovative solutions to the most challenging of projects.

Yours Truthfully,
